D.O. letter dated the 15th July 1921 from Mr. A.R. Wadia to the Registrar Mysore University.

Your D.O. 55 dated the 13th instant together with a copy of the letter No. 160/C.B. dated the 9th July 1921 from the Chief Secretary to Government, Bangalore to you.

I had a communication last March from the Director of Public Instruction, Bombay, re: my appointment at the Gujarat College, Ahmedabad. He intimated to me certain changes in the terms originally offered to me. I was not prepared to accept these changes, and more over I asked for a proportionately higher start this year than what was offered last year. Since then I have had no further communication on the matter, nor have I bothered to get a reply, as recently I have not been at all anxious to leave Mysore. As is well known to the Government I wanted to leave Mysore service last year on account of my strained relations with the Principal of the Maharaja's College.

I am happy to say that since the advent of Dr. Seal, I find the atmosphere infinitely better than it used to be. So long as I am left to do my work in peace and my students are not harassed by the Principal, I can have no particular desire to leave Mysore.

I am continuing here all the more cheerfully, as I have the satisfaction of knowing that my services are appreciated by the Government, and they were very unwilling to spare me last year.
